Tunisia and Switzerland: draft resolution

World Summit on the Information Society

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolutions 56/183 of 21 December 2001 and 57/238 of 20 December 2002,

Reaffirming the potential of information and communication technologies as powerful tools to foster socio-economic development and contribute to the realization of the internationally agreed development goals, including those contained in the United Nations Millennium Declaration,[1]

1. Expresses its gratitude to the Government of Switzerland for having hosted the first phase of the World Summit on the Information Society at Geneva from 10 to 12 December 2003 and for the support and arrangements put at the disposal of the Summit;

2. Renews its acknowledgement with gratitude for the generous offer of the Government of Tunisia to host the second phase of the Summit, which will take place at Tunis from 16 to 18 November 2005;

3. Takes note of the note by the Secretary-General transmitting the report of the Secretary-General of the International Telecommunication Union on the first phase and progress in preparation for the second phase of the World Summit on the Information Society;[2]

4. Endorses the Declaration of Principles and the Plan of Action adopted by the Summit on 12 December 2003,[3] and welcomes, in this regard, the strong development orientation of both documents, and stresses the importance of the effective and timely implementation of the Plan of Action;

* Reissued for technical reasons.

5. Welcomes the contribution of Member States, relevant United Nations bodies, including the Information and Communication Technologies Task Force and other intergovernmental organizations, non-governmental organizations, civil society and the private sector to the success of the first phase of the Summit;

6. Urges Member States, relevant United Nations bodies, including the Information and Communication Technologies Task Force and other intergovernmental organizations, non-governmental organizations, civil society and the private sector to contribute actively to the implementation of the outcome of the first phase and to the preparatory process of the second phase of the Summit as well as to the Summit itself in order to ensure its overall success and impact on sustainable development;

7. Takes note of the results and decisions of the first meeting of the Preparatory Committee, held at Hammamet, Tunisia, from 24 to 26 June 2004, concerning the structure and output of the second phase of the Summit;

8. Welcomes the establishment of the Working Group on Internet Governance and the Task Force on Financial Mechanisms, set up in accordance with the decisions of the first phase of the Summit;

9. Invites countries to send representation at the highest political level to the second phase of the Summit;

10. Reiterates its call to the international community to make voluntary contribution to the special fund established by the International Telecommunication Union to support the preparations for and holding of the Summit;

11. Invites the Secretary-General of the International Telecommunication Union to transmit to the General Assembly, as soon as it is available, the report of the World Summit on the Information Society.
